

JOB DESCRIPTION

MIDDLE SCHOOL/HIGH SCHOOL PHYSICAL EDUCATION/HEALTH

Tsinghua International School, located on the campus of Tsinghua University High School, is a grade 1-12 school providing a unique educational experience for the approximately 550 members of the student body. The school utilizes a progressive/inquiry based, North American approach to instruction coupled with a decidedly Eastern influence.

Position Description

We are seeking a Middle School Physical Education/Health teacher who will teach three sections of grade 7 or 8, both Physical Education and Health and one section of a high school elective. The teacher should have background in the Shape America standards, fitness assessments, and active cooperative games in addition to skills in a variety of sports including basketball, volleyball, soccer/football, badminton, ping pong, gymnastics, strength training and some dance. He/She must possess the ability to teach Health Education. This individual must be willing to work with other staff members as well as parents. While most responsibilities are delineated below, the individual must be flexible and willing to lend a hand when and where needed.

Responsibilities

- Provide a nurturing, caring and supportive environment for students.
- Utilize inquiry as a major instructional model especially in Health.
- Reinforce Literacy skills through PE and Health.
- Teach a variety of sports and movement activities as identified in the grade level curriculum.
- Include cooperative games as appropriate.
- Work with the other middle school teachers to use elements of "Circles" as a classroom management and community building tool.
- Participate actively in curriculum writing using "Understanding by Design" as the model.
- Emphasize the School Wide Learner Outcomes.
- Inspire students to deepen their love of exercise, movement, and sport.
- Work with the ESL students within the regular class while maintaining an English only classroom.
- Promote cross-cultural understanding among the students.
- Maintain a strong, positive and informative relationship with parents.
- Prepare for and participate in all parent conferences.
- Coach a sport after school.
- Actively engage in professional development during school sessions as well as during the normal school day.
- Occasionally cover a class for a colleague.
- Manage a study hall if needed.

- Participate in and/or lead school events that may occur in the evenings and/or on weekends.
- Help organize, promote and participate in the annual Sports Day.

Qualifications

- Excellent English language skills.
- Bachelor's degree or higher in Physical Education/Health
- State or Provincial certification in PE/Health.
- Experience working effectively with middle school aged students.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Knowledge of or interest in utilizing Shape America standards.
- Strong interest in living and working in China.
